Seek Ring Titles

While nine titles have already been decided in the Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament, plenty of action bouts are on tap tonight at San Francisco's Winterland when the finals take place beginning at 8 p.m.

In the senior class, three Eastbay boxers will seek titles. In the 160-pound division, John Heard of Oakland, one of the tourney's outstanding performers to date, meets Howard Gross of Camp Stoneman.

A veteran campaigner, Ray Gil, is expected to prove a tough hurdle for Oakland's William Bullock, who is out to annex the 147-pound crown.

John Law of Hayward is favored to capture the 126-pound title from Rudy Sanchez of Mountain View.

King Kennedy of Albany has already been crowned in the 112-pound class in the junior division, while Leo Campbell of Oakland has won the 124-pound title in the novice class.

Charles Osuna, another local boy, has walked away with honors in the novice division of the 156-pound class.

Senior bouts will consist of three rounds of three minutes each, while junior and novice bouts will consist of three rounds of two minutes' duration.

Bouts featuring local boxers follow:

124-pound class, junior—Ernie Jaramillo, Judson-Pacific-Murphy AC, Emeryville; Ralph Gutierrez, U.S. Marine Barracks, Moffatt Field.
